What should be the priorities for a competition policy reform agenda to ensure that efficient businesses, large or small, can compete effectively and drive growth in productivity and living standards?
Could you PLEASE look at the power Woolworths and Coles have on small business, and how they demand rebates and allowances and then 100% supplier funded promotions (specials). The demand high margins of over 50% and then additionally they take 20% off invoice for 'rebates and allowances' and the expect the supplier to fully fund promotions generally between 10 - 20% or buy one get one free. If the supplier does not agree to their promotion schedule, they warn you ay be deleted. I can supply proof of every item, if requested. Other supermarket retailers in the USA and Europe do NOT do this. Thank you for requesting feedback Mark Flechter
Are there unwarranted regulatory impediments to competition in any sector in Australia that should be removed or altered?
