

Reference number CR1605

Contact name

Amarjit Bhela

Is your submission confidential?

No

Submission type

Have Your Say

Comment

I am a local independent grocer of the IGA organisation and strongly disagree with the regulation creating competition. 'Trading hours deregulation' will destroy small independent businesses instead of supporting them. There is already so much competition between the larger retail chains, creating flexible trading hours for them will kill small independent retail owners, like myself. Local businesses are essential in creating a community, they are the backbone to the society, not large cloned shareholder businesses.