Why are we eroding family values and spending time together? I would like Sundays for all shops to be closed so the family can have outings together. Go to cafes, theme parks, cinemas etc. Those people who work in these areas on Sunday are paid penalty rates so we can enjoy ourselves while they are working.

Why are the retailers greedy to have shops open 24/7? That is why they want to remove penalty rates. And yet our population is too small to sustain 24/7 working hours, it is not profitable. And they keep building more shopping centres for the same amount of people spreading their profits thinly.

There is only enough wealth for everyone's needs, not everyone's greed. Do you want to work shift work in the middle of the night for the same rate you can work in the middle of the day? I don't think so.

I definitely support that holidays and penalties remain and are not removed.
