

Reference number CR1656

Contact name

Benjamin Helmore

Is your submission confidential?

No

Submission type

Have Your Say

Comment

I strongly disagree with the new proposed changes. I believe that this will cause great distress to many individuals and families. If these changes are made it will give employers the power to essentially force employees to work during times that are normally spent with family and friends there for causing more stress on families and decreasing there work moral.