

Reference number CR1665

Contact name

Graham Klerks

Is your submission confidential?

No

Submission type

Have Your Say

Comment

To what end should the average Joe work all these hours with less than a handful of public holidays that they can spend with their families ? I would like to see what these same policy makers might say if they were on our side of the fence and weren't allowed the lengthy break from Parliament they have become accustomed to. We are here to work to live, not living to work.