Re: proposal put forward for tolls to be charged on all roads in Australia.

This insane proposal damn well angers me and I want to tell the out-of-touch revenue-hungry morons where to stick their "proposal."

This is just absolute madness and is the ultimate in revenue raising, as well as proving that you must think Aussie motorists are the dumbest, most apathetic group in the world! Think that's a harsh statement?

Please tell me any other country in the world where they would even think of such an insane proposal. It wouldn't happen because there would be absolute outrage! The only reason there hasn't been outrage, mass demonstrations and revolts in the streets here is most people don't even know about this.

This is, quite simply, disgusting.

The fact that the general motoring public is treated with such complete and utter contempt is disgraceful. The fact that we allow these "authorities" to get away with it is even worse!

Our roads are created in fee simple – We, The People own them – we cannot be charged to use them but unfortunately not enough people know that. Our taxes pay for the building of these roads and, as such, they belong to us – they are not yours to tax (toll).

I am expressing My Will that our roads remain free from tolls – as section 92 of the Commonwealth Constitution dictates – and I do not authorize any so-called "authorities" to approve any such proposal.
