

Reference number CR1567

Contact name

James Whittaker

Is your submission confidential?

No

Submission type

Have Your Say

Comment

I think that reduced competition is a good thing in some of the areas where this report is trying to increase competition.

Also in terms of the GM crop debate I don't think this is a competition issue. This is a contamination and food safety issue. Speaking to people about it I believe the majority of South Australians support the ban on this and believe there is no competitive advantage of have this legal.